THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN

MANAGERS & LEADERS

Manager vs. Leader

Manager Vs Leader

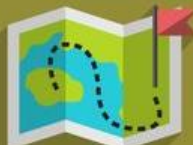

Tells  This is what I want you to do, and here is how I want you to do it.	Sells  I have this great idea, and I know it will work if I can get you to be a part of it.
Plans The Details  I'll send out a memo to everyone and set a time for us to meet.	Sets The Direction  Let's get everyone together. I've got some exciting news you'll all want to hear.
Minimizes Risks  Time is money. The sooner I get this done, the better.	Takes Risks  This might stretch us, but the payoff will make it worthwhile.
Instructs Employees  If you're not sure of what your job entails, you can check the flowchart on my door.	Encourages People  If you think you've got a better way, my door is always open.

Manager Vs Leader

Has Objectives  Let's stick to the plans so these get done ASAP.	Has Vision  I like your thinking. Let's see how we can work this into our operation.
Meets Expectations  We met our goals for this quarter; mission accomplished.	Charts New Growth  Our goals are just a starting point. We are limited only by how far we want to reach.
Eyes The Bottom Line  We got everything done and came in under budget.	Eyes The Horizon  We got everything done, came in under budget, and laid the groundwork for the next phase.
Accepts The Status Quo  If it ain't broke don't fix it.	Challenges The Status Quo  I know it isn't broken, but is there a way to do it that's even better?

What is Leadership?

Manager Vs Leader

Sees A Problem  Our plan didn't work. I've got to fix it before I get blamed.	Sees An Opportunity  Our plan didn't work. Let's put our heads together to see what we can learn from this.
Thinks Short-Term  We can't afford this kind of capital purchase right now.	Thinks Long-Term  Let's look beyond the cost today and explore what this investment can mean down the road.
Follows The Map  Our directions are very clear. Stick to them.	Carves New Roads  If we keep going down the same road, we'll only end up in the same place.
Approves  You did your job well, and on time.	Motivates  You know, I've never had to worry about you doing your job - and doing it well.
Establishes Rules  Stick to the script. We can't have everyone just running around doing their own thing.	Breaks Rules  What are we doing that holds people back?

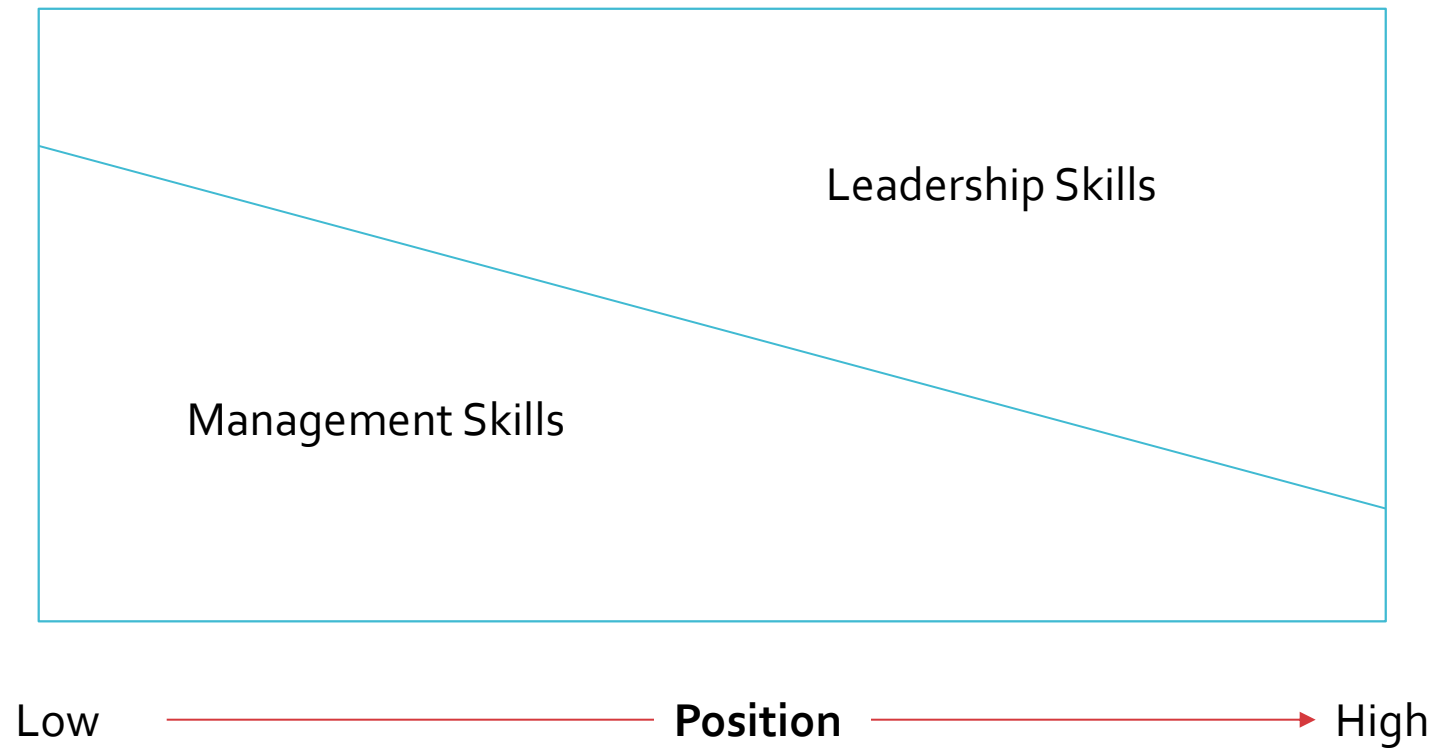

Manager Vs Leader

Assigns Duties  I need you here at 8 a.m. sharp. Our customers depend on us being on time.	Fosters Ideas  Customers tell me they love working with you. I'd like you to show some of the others how you do that.
Votes With Their Head  This idea makes the most sense. Let's go with that.	Votes With Their Heart  This idea is interesting and gutsy. How can we implement it?
Relies On Control  My workers know the consequences if they get out of line.	Inspires Trust  My workers know I trust them to be the best they can be.
Does Things Right  Rules are rules. As much as I'd like to, I can't make an exception.	Does the Right Thing  I know what the rules say. But sometimes you just need to break them.
